

The Valley <sup>OF</sup> THE Ten Peaks:

Moraine Lake Fishing Camp,

---

LAGGAN, ALBERTA, CANADA.

---

NINE miles from Lake Louise (C.P.R.) in the Canadian Rockies, Moraine Lake, lying below the Ten Peaks, is reached by a magnificent road. The view on the way of the Bow Valley, Mount Hector, Saddleback, Mount Temple, the entrance to Paradise Valley, Mount Sheol, the Ten Peaks and Moraine Lake, Consolation Valley, with the Tower of Babel, Mounts Fay, Quadra Bident and Bell being particularly beautiful.

THE CAMP.

The Camp is situated at the end of the road on the shore of the Lake, and has been opened to meet the wants of visitors who wish to obtain Tea and Refreshments, also for Fishermen who find the distance from the Chateau prevents their being on the water during the best time—early morning and evening. The terms are :—(single meals) Teas 30c., Lunch 75c., per day $3.00.

Biscuits with Tea, Coffee, or Chocolate served in the mornings only, 25c.

Guests may be assured that every assistance will be given to enable their having good sport in Moraine or Consolation Lake, and in the creeks from the lakes. Boats on both the Lakes, Rods, Rubber Boots, may be rented from the Camp at moderate rates.

The “ Tally Ho ” leaves The Chateau morning and afternoon, 20 minutes being allowed at Moraine to enable visitors to have refreshments if they wish. Ponies and Private Conveyances may also be rented from the Brewster Transfer Co., at the Chateau.

Tourists will find that staying over-night at the Camp enables them to visit, with more leisure, the places below, of which the Camp is the centre.

Places of Interest within easy distance of the Camp :—

1. Boom Lake, via Consolation Valley and Lake and the pass by Bell Mountain, is a climb of moderate danger, the Swiss Guides from Lake Louise should be engaged for the trip, which necessitates camping out the night.

MORaine LAKE.

II. Wenckchemna Lake & Pass, an excellent trail, time about 2 hours, Mounts Eiffel, Hungabee are seen to great advantage.

III. Sentinel Pass, 8,556 ft. to the Chateau via Paradise Valley, 4½ hours, or via Saddleback, 5 hours, through the most beautiful scenery in the mountains ; the trail rising from Moraine, along Larch Valley to the Pass over the shoulder of Mount Temple, where a wonderful panorama of the Ten Peaks and Paradise Valley, Hungabee, &c., is obtained.

Special arrangements for those who do not wish to take a long walk and yet wish to see these places, can be made with the Brewster Transfer Co., by leaving for Moraine on the morning "Talley Ho," side trip to Consolation Lake, stay the night at the Camp, leaving early in the morning via Sentinel Pass where Ponies can be met in Paradise Valley for the remainder of the journey to Lake Louise.

IV. Consolation Lake, 2 miles, the valley up to the Lake is one of the most fertile in flowers, and Mounts Fay, Bident, Quadra and Bell are seen at close quarters, towering above the trail.

The Camp propose having boats on the Lake, in which, and in the creek, the fishing is of very high order, the most in-expert fisherman seldom being disappointed.

V. Pony trail, running parallel to the road, but at higher level is worth walking, 7 miles to the Chateau, and was in existence before the road was made, the flowers afford great interest to Botanists. Guides from the Camp to these places, other than Boom Lake, will be supplied from the Camp $3.00 per day.

Every endeavour will be made to make Guests as comfortable as possible, but the Camp will be run as a "Camp" and Guests must not expect electric light and such modern conveniences.

The Camp will be open from 10th June till October 1st, 1914.

Apply before 9th May to :—

Miss E. STRICK, 13, Hereford Bldgs, Chelsea; England.

Miss L. DODDS, 151, East 86th St., New York.
and afterwards to Miss. M. K. DANKS,
Moraine Lake Camp, Laggan, Alberta.

At Mirror Lake, "The Lakes in the Clouds," will be a Refreshment Camp, under the Management of Miss L. Dodds, where visitors will be able to obtain Tea, Coffee and Cold Drinks, which will doubtless be welcome after the climb from the Chateau.

Will visitors, who are in any way not satisfied, kindly make their complaint to Miss STRICK at the Camp, instead of at the Chateau. The Camp not being managed by the C.P.R.
